2. Are you frustrated at the news you hear daily about election laws? Want to make a difference? Go to the Board of Elections on Eisenhower and sign up to be a poll worker. They provide the training and you can be involved in the process. Get your friends and family to do the same.
3. Tim Echols, Public Service Commissioner, is up for re-election in May. He is “sponsoring” today’s meeting with a $250 donation. Please remember that we are endorsing Tim before the primary since he has no Republican opposition.
4. We are having a board/executive committee meeting Monday, Jan. 10th at Cancun’s in Twelve Oaks Shopping Center at 11 AM. The board consists of the chairs of the various committees. A reminder email will be sent out Friday.
5. I will be sending out an email to the membership with details regarding the issues on which we will be voting at the February meeting. That meeting will be held at the Savannah Golf Club. The cost is $35 a plate and you will need to make a reservation by end of day January 24th. We will NOT be limited by 60 people. Our speaker will be Richard Woods, State School Superintendent. At the close of the meeting, we will have a short visit from Pearl E. Gates. You have to be there!!!
6. Ladies on the Right holds their next luncheon on Thursday, January 20th at the Palmetto Club in The Landings. Social hour is from noon to one and program is from 1 to 2:30. This month’s featured speakers are Meg Heap (GA State Board of Pardons and Paroles) and Darcelle Burandt (Founder/Executive Director of House of Hope-Refuge of Love) Reservations close on January 17th. Go to ladiesontheright.org for more details and for payment.
7. Skidaway Island Republican Club will host the Ronald Reagan Dinner and Annual Meeting on Wed., Feb. 16th. Event starts at 5:30 with cocktails, followed by a seated dinner at 6:30 in the Palmetto Ballroom. The speaker is Molly Hemingway and attendees will receive a copy of her latest book, Rigged: How the Media, Big Tech, and the Democrats Seized Our Elections. The cost is $150 per person.
