

REPUBLICAN WOMEN

SARW MISSION STATEMENT

To make our voices stronger on the issues important to women

To be informed on the issues through the capital connection and political briefings

To financially support and activate grassroots efforts in electing Republicans

To train and elect women in office and on the campaign trail

SARW EXECUTIVE BOARD MESSAGE:

Our Executive Committee wants to inform you of the following items:

At our upcoming SARW meeting on May 4, 2022, our Speaker is Anthony Burton. He will be educating us about the District Attorney's office.

NEWS REGARDING THE VENUE VOTE FROM MARCH MEETING: Please make every effort to attend our MAY luncheon, so your voice can be heard as we plan to vote again between only two options.

2022 SARW Scholarship: SARW is proud to award our 2022 Scholarship Award to Laurel Bixler from Richmond Hill High School. Laurel will be at our meeting to accept the award.

FOCUS: The SARW's main focus is on our fundraising event on May 6th, two days after our May meeting. We have many volunteers from our club, but the need for more club member assistance is still there. Please volunteer for this very important club event. See the 2nd Amendment Rally message below.
